PMSA Chairman Resignation

After 17 years of service to the PMSA, Mr Robert McCall has tendered his resignation from the PMSA Council. In addition to his role as PMSA Chairman, Mr McCall has also served as

- Deputy Chairman of the PMSA Council
- Chairman of Somerville House School Council
- Chairman of Appointment and Remuneration Committee

In announcing his resignation, Mr McCall told the Council that it had been a privilege to serve on the PMSA Council for 17 years.

Mr McCall has been part of a School Council with three Principals at Somerville House while he has also played a role in the progress of Clayfield College, Brisbane Boys' College and Sunshine Coast Grammar School through his role on the PMSA Council.

Following Mr McCall's resignation, Mr Greg Adsett will be the Acting Chairman. Mr Adsett is the PMSA Deputy Chairman and Chairman of the Sunshine Coast Grammar School Council.
